Mater adds a fellow mate to the popular Double Bottle

Mater is expanding the line of tableware accessories with the elegant Handle Vase designed by the Danish architect Eva Harlou. Handle Vase has the same original design language as the Double Bottle carafe launched end of 2017. The Handle Vase offers an original yet functional way of arranging flowers and easily set a beautiful table.

The vase is hand blown in borosilicate glass and rests elegantly on a foot of FSC certified oak that allows to play with positioning of the flowers. The handle further allows the vase to hang in displays and decorative setups.
